Intended Outcome

Stakeholders are able to form an opinion on the overall effectiveness of the board and individual directors.

Practice 5.1

The board should undertake a formal and objective annual evaluation to determine the effectiveness of the board, its committees and each individual director. The board should disclose how the assessment was carried out and its outcome.

For Large Companies, the board engages independent experts periodically to facilitate objective and candid board evaluations.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The NRC carries out assessment on an annual basis on the effectiveness and performance of the Board, Board Committees and contribution of each individual Director, including the required mix of skills, independence of the Independent Non-Executive Directors, diversity and core competencies necessary for the Board to discharge its duties effectively. Each Director will be provided with a detailed questionnaire in the Directors' Performance Evaluation which covers matters relevant to the Board performance, among other things, contribution to interaction, quality of input, understanding of role and personal developments. An evaluation of each Board Committee will be carried out by assessing the structure, roles and responsibilities, performance of the respective Chairman, as well as Committee's performance against its TOR. Results of the evaluation of the Board, Board Committees and individual Directors are presented to the NRC and Board meetings. As of June 2020, the NRC has conducted the evaluation and assessment exercise in respect of the effectiveness and performance of the Board and Board Committees, and contribution of each individual Director on the Board for the financial year ended 31 December 2019. Following the evaluation and assessment results, the NRC agreed that the Board as a whole, the Board Committees and each individual Director had performed well and effectively and the overall composition of the Board in terms of size, mix of skills, experience, core competencies, diversity and the balance between the Executive Directors, Non-Executive Directors and Independent Directors, is appropriate. The Independent Directors had also fulfilled their independent role in corporate accountability through their objective participation in Board deliberations during Board meetings.

	Based on the evaluation and assessment results, the NRC has also recommended to the Board, Tan Sri Datuk (Dr.) Rafiah Binti Salim and Mr. Sanjeev Nanavati, who are retiring and eligible to stand for re-election at the Company's forthcoming Annual General Meeting in accordance with Clause 103 of the Company's Constitution. Tan Sri Datuk (Dr.) Rafiah Binti Salim has expressed her intention to seek for re-election at the Company's forthcoming Annual General Meeting but Mr. Sanjeev Nanavati has expressed his intention that he does not wish to seek re-election and as such, he will retire as a Director of the Company at the conclusion of the Company's forthcoming Annual General Meeting.
